the Public Works Department. All bills of the Public Works Department relating to establishment, T. A., Contingencies and bills for supplies and services, etc., that used to be presented to the Comptroller at Bangalore for preaudit should in future with effect from 25th April 1947 be presented to the Auditor, Public Works Department who will deal with them as in the Comptroller's Office. Tokens will be issued by the Public Works Department Audit Office in future in respect of all such bills and cheques will be issued by him after the bills are audited and the tokens got surrendered at his office.

2. Bills in respect of which payments are desired at Banks within the State or at (2) places outside the State and (3) at places outside India should also be presented at the Public Works Department Audit Office. No tokens will be issued in respect of them, and they will be treated as "Non-token bills" and requisitions for authorising such payments will be sent by the Auditor, Public Works Department, after audit to the Comptroller's Office which will arrange payment direct to the parties concerned.

3. In the case of bills on which there are no specific directions for payments at Banks, payments will be arranged for only at the Treasuries.

4. Bills for payment at Treasuries other than State Huzur Treasury and District Treasury, Bangalore, which are subject to preaudit under the existing rules, will also be received in the Public Works Department Audit Office and the bills themselves will be returned to the Drawing Officers with enfacement duly made thereon for payment at the mofussil treasuries by the Auditor, Public Works Department.
